

Appendix A: Manuscript Letters

- From Sir Thomas Lewis between 1904 and 1930.
- 1904, account of hunting trip to Norway.
- 1912, to his father and to his mother [regarding his career and his department at UCH] 1920 to Sir Walter Fletcher.
- 1921, two letters to Sir James Mackenzie one on digitalis and the heart and one on the funding of Heart.
- 1930, an address to the King of the Belgians [regarding the Harvey film].
- From Sir James Mackenzie between 1909 and 1920.
- 1909 to 1910, four letters to Dr (later Sir) William Hume regarding polygraph recordings on patients of Hume.
- 1918 to 1920, three letters to Thomas Lewis. July 1918, "My dear Lewis"...a long letter.
- 1918 and 1920, sending thanks for a copy of Lewis' book and various other matters.
- From Henry Lewis (father of TL), 1910-1914, eight letters.
- From Katherine Hannah Lewis (mother of TL), 1904-1913, four letters
- From Dr Eluned Woodford Williams (a former student) to Sir Thomas Lewis, 1935-1944, twelve letters.
- From Jan Masaryk Czech Minister in London, 1925, to Sir Thomas Lewis telling him he had been elected to the Czech Medical Society of Prague. NB: Jan Masaryk was a great Czech patriot.
- From Mr Wilfrid Trotter FRCS to Sir Thomas Lewis in 1929 with congratulations on the Victor Horsley Lecture.
- On the occasion of Lewis's election in 1918 to the Royal Society, four letters of congratulation from Henry Head, Joseph Barcroft, E M Bruce-Vaughan and Sir William Osler.
- Transcriptions of some important letters.
- Letters from his mother and father to Dr Thomas Lewis [Sir Thomas 1920] (1881-1945).

- Correspondence between Thomas Lewis and James Mackenzie.
- Letters from James Mackenzie to William Hume.
- Letter from Thomas Lewis to Walter Fletcher.
- Letters from Thomas Lewis to his parents.
- Letters to Thomas Lewis from a range of correspondents.
- Letter from Dr Robert Litwak re Dr Charles Bailey and mitral surgery.